The screenshot shows the FreeLOms Repository website. The header is blue with the FreeLOms logo (a stylized 'L' made of three colored segments) on the left and the text 'FreeLOms Repository' in the center. A 'Login' link is in the top right corner. Below the header, there's a breadcrumb trail: 'FreeLOms Home → Community List'. The main content area has a section titled 'FreeLOms Repository' with a welcome message: 'Welcome to the new FreeLOms repository.' Below this is a section titled 'Communities in FreeLOms' with the instruction 'Select a community to browse its collections.' and a list of four communities: 'Ensemble', 'Scuole italiane', 'Sloop', and 'Sloop2Desc'. Further down is a 'Search FreeLOms' section with the instruction 'Enter some text in the box below to search FreeLOms.' and a search box with a 'Go' button. On the right side, there's a sidebar with several sections: 'Help' with a link 'Come usare FreeLOms 2'; 'Search FreeLOms' with a search box and a 'Go' button, and a link 'Advanced Search'; 'Browse' with a section 'All of FreeLOms' containing links: '> Communities & Collections', '> By Issue Date', '> Authors', '> Titles', '> Subjects', and '> By Type'; and 'My Account' with a 'Login' link. At the bottom, there's a footer with the text: 'This website is using Manakin, a new front end for DSpace created by Texas A&M University Libraries.' and links 'Contact Us' and 'Send Feedback'.
